attempted to kill two other state senators.

Background checks with local law enforcement and an interview of [redacted] has revealed that [redacted] appears to be mentally unstable. Also, no current threat against Senator SIMON or any other public official had been made. [redacted] had been speaking in terms of what he had attempted to do in the past.

b6

Contact has been maintained with Senator SIMON's office and revealed [redacted] has previously been in contact with Senator SIMON'S OFFICE. [redacted] has expressed that he is unhappy with some of Senator SIMON's political decisions and at one time threatened to commit suicide in front of Senator SIMON's office.

b6
b7C

AUSA [redacted] requested further investigation as to this matter and stated there was no current threat against Senator SIMON and therefore, it would be difficult to prosecute. A final decision would be made after all the facts have been examined.

[redacted] advised he was very familiar with [redacted] and that CPD performed an indepth background investigation on [redacted].
 The background investigation revealed [redacted] was not a Vietnam Veteran as he has claimed to be and in fact there had been no record of [redacted] being in any branch of the armed forces. [redacted] further advised [redacted] was placed into the [redacted] MENTAL HOSPITAL as a result of physically beating a female he had shared a kitchen facility with at [redacted]. [redacted] was further described as a person who constantly states that he is disadvantaged and blames anyone and everyone for his condition.
 Currently, [redacted] is under no supervision and is selling women's lingerie. [redacted] also advised [redacted] has threatened to kill a number of public officials in the past and is carefully watched whenever a known public official is visiting Carbondale. According to [redacted] [redacted] is very mentally unstable and capable of just about anything.

[redacted] then stated he was suffering from a mental disorder and it was very easy for him to become confused. He admitted to previously attempting to injure Senator SIMON, but added at that time in his life he had nothing to lose. [redacted] advised he would not even think of killing Senator SIMON because he [redacted] had too much to lose by doing something so stupid. [redacted] further advised he felt he was going to be arrested for doing something he had no part in just to keep him quiet. [redacted] stated he could hurt Senator SIMON more politically by bringing to light the fact that Senator SIMON supported a bill that did not keep the veterans best interests in mind. [redacted] believed the Daily Egyptian newspaper contacted Senator SIMON's office in an effort to keep him [redacted] from going public with his accusations against the Daily Egyptian and Senator SIMON. The accusations, according to [redacted], could damage Senator SIMON's campaign for re-election.

Other interviews conducted included a staff writer and associate editor of the "Daily Egyptian Newspaper" (DEN). These interviews described [redacted] as a deeply emotional and troubled person. [redacted] did not hesitate to call and let his feelings known. [redacted] stated on numerous occasions that the DEN was a government run newspaper due to the fact that the articles written never fully reflected the truth. [redacted] held Senator SIMON's office responsible since the articles usually did not criticize SIMON and always viewed him as a good politician.
